

Jewish Guide to Living and Learning

384 Harvard Street | Brookline, MA 02446

384 Campus

Congregation
Kehillath Israel

Congregation
Mishkan Tefila

YACHAD
BECAUSE EVERYONE BELONGS

Washington Square Minyan

מִינְיַן שְׁלֵמִים
Minyan Shaleym

Hebrew SeniorLife
Care • Community • Innovation

המכללה העברית
HEBREW
COLLEGE

KESHET
קֶשֶׁת

TEMPLE REYIM

Introduction

The 384 Harvard St. Campus is proud to offer this Fall 5778 Guide to Jewish Living and Learning. Our campus includes many partners, all offering a variety of Jewish experiences to contribute to our learning and growth. This guide provides learning opportunities that we hope will inspire, challenge, and enrich our Jewish living. These offerings include one time events, weekly classes, and mini-series (meets for three or four sessions). Some of the topics include traditional text study, prayer skills, Hebrew, exploring ritual life, Jewish cooking and much more. Unless otherwise indicated, courses listed meet at 384 Harvard St. We will share updates to our learning offerings regularly, and we encourage you to reach out to the contacts listed for each class if you have questions or are interested in participating. RSVPs are important to us and appreciated.

SAVE THE DATE - Sunday, October 22nd from 9:30 AM - 12:30 PM

Adult Learning Summit at 384 Harvard St.

We will introduce new classes, highlight continuing programs, and grow as a community of learners. This will also begin our regular Sunday learning, featuring regular classes as well as special mini-series featuring top educators on a wide range of topics.

May it be a year of deep learning that enriches our Jewish lives, builds community, and offers fresh perspectives on what it means to be a Jew in our contemporary world.

If you have any questions want to reach out to us please feel free. Join the Adult Learning Committee by emailing elizabeth@conghi.org

Rabbi William Hamilton: rabbi@conghi.org

Rabbi Marcia Plumb: RabbiPlumb@mishkantefila.org

Director of Congregational Learning, Shirah Rubin: shirah@conghi.org

Rabbinic Intern, Elizabeth Bonney-Cohen: elizabeth@conghi.org

STAY CONNECTED - Sign-up for weekly updates

KI: Email info@conghi.org or call 617-277-9155 to subscribe to:

KI Young Families Weekly Newsletter (newborns—age 5);

KI Youth News (Kindergarten—5th grade); Teen News;

and/or KI Weekly eNews & Rabbi's eDvar

CMT: Email secretary@mishkantefila.org or call 617-332-7770 to subscribe to CMT's weekly announcements.

Table of Contents

Weekly Courses	Page 2-3
Mussar.....	Page 2
Shabbat Afternoon Beginner Talmud.....	Page 2
tasteBook.....	Page 3
Weekly Talmud.....	Page 3
Ongoing Programs	Page 4-15
Baby Pilates.....	Page 4
B'nai Mitzvah Seminar.....	Page 4
Cuddle Up Shabbat & Dinner.....	Page 5
Campus Teen Initiative.....	Page 5
Family Havdalah.....	Page 6
Grand-Parenting Through a Jewish Lens.....	Page 6
Hebrew Play.....	Page 7
Inclusion Committee.....	Page 7
Jewish Art Making.....	Page 7
Jewish Stories, Told Live.....	Page 8
Jewish Rituals Regarding Death & Grief.....	Page 8
KI's Shabbat Morning Davening Corps.....	Page 9
KICKS Davening Corps.....	Page 9
Learn to Leyn.....	Page 10
Me'ah.....	Page 10
Memoir Writing.....	Page 11
Rosh Chodesh: It's a Girl Thing!.....	Page 11
Modern Hebrew.....	Page 11
Parenting Through a Jewish Lens.....	Page 12
Shabbat Kiddush Parsha Study.....	Page 12
Siddur Meaning Making.....	Page 13
Santa/Menorah.....	Page 13
Solving the Hanukah/Christmas Dilemma for Interfaith Families
Tea in Tishrei.....	Page 14
Traditional (Yiddish/Klezmer) Dance from the Shtetl.....	Page 14
What are the Minyanim on the 384 Campus all about?...	Page 15
Women and Judaism.....	Page 15

Table of Contents

Special Speakers & Events.....	Page 16-20
★ Adult Learning Summit.....	Page 16
Taste of Torah for New Kindergarteners.....	Page 16
Food for Thought.....	Page 17
Inspo:Expo—Brookline Action Fair.....	Page 17
KI in Israel.....	Page 17
KI Religious School Open House.....	Page 18
Kosher Chicken Soup Cook Off.....	Page 18
Rabbi Tamar Elad-Appelbaum.....	Page 19
For high schoolers: Sukkot & Shiur.....	Page 19
Open Gym for Pre-K Families.....	Page 19
Rabbi Naomi Levy.....	Page 20
Social Justice Pathways.....	Page 20
What's Shaking at KI (Pre-Sukkot Party).....	Page 20
Offsite Partner Events.....	Page 21-23
Book Club.....	Page 21
Jewish Wisdom.....	Page 21
Jewish and LGBTQ Teen Group.....	Page 22
LimmudBoston.....	Page 22
Parsha & Other Texts.....	Page 22
Ruderman Inclusion Summit.....	Page 23
Russian Kabbalat Shabbat and Torah Study.....	Page 23
Soul Search.....	Page 23

Weekly Courses

Mussar

Monday mornings beginning October 23 through June
10:30—11:45 am in the Library with Rabbi Marcia Plumb
$10 per session=$60 total

Free to partner organization members

(Scholarship available through Hebrew College and Congregation Mishkan Tefila. Please indicate interest in your RSVP.)

To register please email secretary@mishkantefila.org

Find inner calm and balance, as well as the ability to shed debilitating habits of behavior, through the study and practice of Mussar literature.

Shabbat Afternoon Beginner Talmud

Shabbat Afternoons | Start Times Vary

With Bruce Weinstock

Registration required. To register please email:

bruceweinstock@gmail.com

Our weekly Talmud study sessions meet Shabbat afternoons whenever two or more sign up to attend. No knowledge of Hebrew or Aramaic needed. Beginners welcome. Advanced learners also welcome. Contact Bruce Weinstock for information: bruceweinstock@gmail.com or 617-818-7976.

tasteBook

Saturday afternoons | Time varies with Shabbat
Meets in the Library with Rabbi Hamilton

Join Rabbi Hamilton for his tasteBook series in which he explores new book releases, teaching varying topics and genres. Classes specializing on different topics will begin 30 minutes prior to Shabbat afternoon Mincha. For Mincha times, please check the front page of www.congki.org. Times are updated weekly.

Questions? Email Rabbi Hamilton at ki.rabbi@gmail.com.

Holidays and special events may affect tasteBook meetings.

Weekly Talmud

Thursdays at 11:00 am in the Library
With Rabbi Joseph Schultz

This is an on-going class, and new participants are always welcome. Join Rabbi Joseph Schultz in the Library for this traditional text study of the Babylonian Talmud. To be added to the weekly class notification email list, please contact the KI Main Office at mainoffice@congki.org.

Ongoing Programs

For families!

Baby Pilates with Goni Rubel

Tuesdays, $170 for 11 weeks or $20 drop-in.

Oct. 1, 17, 24, 31, Nov. 7, 14, 21, 28, Dec. 5, 12

RSVP to gonirubel@gmail.com

Lessons will focus on strengthening the core muscles, correct breathing, flexible mobility and listening to the body. Babies can take an active part while listening to their emotional and developmental needs. *Please have a yoga mat and blanket.

For teens!

B'nai Mitzvah Seminar

Events throughout the year with Batya Ellinoy

bnaimitzvah@conghi.org

Families of students becoming bar/bat mitzvah will spend the year learning and volunteering together, clarifying values and engaging in a wide range of Jewish experiences. For more information, please contact Batya Ellinoy at bnaimitzvah@conghi.org.

Sunday, 10/8 /17 • 3-5 pm at KI's Sukkah

Sunday, 11/12/17 • 10am-12:30 pm at Family Table, Waltham

Sunday, 12/3/17 • 2-3:00 pm at Mayyim Hayyim, Newton

Saturday, 12/9/17 • 9:30 am-1:30 pm, KI Shabbat Service

Saturday, 1/27/18 • 9:30 am-12:00 pm, KI Shabbat Service

Sunday, 2/4/18 • 8:00-9:30 am in Epstein Auditorium

Sunday, 3/4/18 • 3:00-5:00 pm in KI's Library

Friday, 4/27/18 • 5:30-8:30 pm in Epstein Auditorium

Sunday, 5/6/18 • 3:00-5:00 pm in KI's Library

For teens!

Campus Teen Initiative

Events throughout the year with Jessica Woolf (teens@conghi.org). Subscribe to Teen News: info@conghi.org

CTI (Campus Teen Initiative) enables teens on the 384 Harvard Street Campus to connect with each other and with the Campus community. CTI empowers teens to take a leadership role in putting together and participating in programs that enable them to connect Jewishly, socially, and educationally.

For families!

Cuddle Up Shabbat & Dinner

Friday evenings at 5:30 pm—Dinner served after 11/10, 12/8, 1/12, 2/9, 3/9, 4/13, 5/11, & 6/8
RSVP by the Tuesday before to info@conghi.org
Led by Jessica Woolf

Join a fun Tot-Shabbat service for families with kids 0-5! We'll welcome Shabbat together with song, stories, movement, and dinner. Home hosted—RSVP to receive the address.

For families!

Family Havdalah

Saturdays 5:30—6:30 pm

December 16, January 27, and February 24

RSVP by the Tuesday before to info@congki.org

Home hosted—RSVP for address

Share the end of Shabbat with Havdalah games, stories, and songs for families. On December 16, join us for a special Hanukkah Havdalah session! Please RSVP by the Tuesday before for the address of these home-hosted events.

Grand-Parenting Through a Jewish Lens

Wednesdays, April 11, 18, and 25

10:00 am—12:00 noon

Taught by Margie Bagdanow

RSVP required: secretary@mishkantefila.org

Grandparents play a critical role in the life of the family. Explore your roles, expectations, hopes and fears as grandparents in this popular adaption of the Parenting through a Jewish Lens program.

For families!

Hebrew Play

Tuesday mornings 9:30—10:15 am

October 3, 10, 17, 24 & 31, November 7, 14, 21 & 28,
December 5 & 12—$187 per session

To register please visit www.hebrewplay.net

Come and enjoy Israeli music, Hebrew story-hour, and a chance to connect with new families! Hebrew Play engages families (0 - 5 year-old children) in Hebrew community playgroups and events using classic and contemporary Israeli children's music and literature.

Inclusion Committee

Join us monthly to advance inclusivity, accessibility, and integration of all members into our community. More details:

inclusion@congki.org or 617-277-9155

Jewish Art Making

Sundays: October 22 and 29, November 5, 12,
and November 19, December 3 and 10

9:30—10:15 am

$20 per session

Details & registration: Info@centermakor.org

Explore Jewish symbols and symbolism in drawing and painting. Taught by Polina Dorosinskaya who has MA in visual arts. During these sessions, you will learn, while you will creating, drawing or painting, about Jewish symbols, their meanings, symbolism, philosophy.

Jewish Stories, Told Live

Sunday, December 10, Evening

Led by Rabbi Dan Judson

RSVP requested. Email secretary@mishkantefila.org

Enjoy our version of the popular NPR program, The Moth Radio Hour. Listen to the stories of friends and experts about their Jewish journeys. Wine and cheese included.

Jewish Rituals Regarding Death & Grief

Mondays: Oct. 23, Nov. 6, 13, & 27, Dec. 4 & 18

*October 22 * Free preview during Adult Learning Summit*

7:00—8:30 pm in a classroom with Rabbi Jim Morgan

$20/session = $120 total (Scholarship Assistance via Hebrew College)

Registration opens in June. To indicate interest & request more information, please visit: tinyurl.com/GriefRituals

Death leaves loved one's searching for meaning and stability in a time that can feel consumed by emotional chaos. This course, offered in association with Hebrew College Open Circle Learning, will focus on Jewish ritual practices for death and grief, focusing on topics such as: End of Life/Viddui, Eulogizing, Shiva, Shloshim, Mourner's Kaddish, Yizkor/Yahrzeit. Through text study and discussion, we will explore what wisdom our traditions offer us in coping with times of loss. Free intro/mini-session on October 22nd.

KI's Shabbat Morning Davening Corps

Meets with interest, with Rabbi Bill Hamilton

Free. To register, please email ki.rabbi@gmail.com

Interested in leading prayers at KI on Shabbat morning?
Sign up to be part of KI's Shabbat Morning Davening Corps to brush-up on leading skills and to be supported in offering your voice to the congregation's prayer experience.

KICKS Davening Corps

Meets quarterly | Meeting Times Vary

With Rabbinic Intern Elizabeth Bonney-Cohen

Free. Register: elizabeth@congki.org

Davening Corps is a team of people with varying levels of davening/prayer-leading experience who are committed to growing as daveners and interested in supporting one another to reach leading and learning goals. KICKS Davening Corps will meet quarterly to work toward goals & build skills together. In addition to these meetings, members of the Davening Corps will work in pairs to lead Kabbalat Shabbat and Maariv at KICKS (KI's Community Kabbalat Shabbat), using that week's "chevruta" to prepare a meaningful prayer experience.

Learn to Leyn

We will match you with a volunteer.

Contact: mainoffice@conghi.org

Have you always wanted to learn to read from the Torah but have never had the opportunity? Did you leyn for your Bar/Bat Mitzvah, but haven't approached the Torah since? Do you know the basics, but want to improve your confidence and precision? Sign up through the above link to receive information about ongoing opportunities to develop leyning skills.

Me'ah

Thursdays, 7:30 pm in the Library, begins Nov. 2

With Dr. Lori Hope Lefkowitz

$350 per person per semester.

Register at tinyurl.com/meahbrookline

Me'ah is offered in partnership with Hebrew College. It is a two-year journey of Adult Learning, comprised of 100 hours of class time (Me'ah is Hebrew for the number 100) through the narrative of the Jewish people from ancient times to present. Participants delve into core texts and the history of four key eras-biblical, rabbinic, medieval and modern- to build a foundation of knowledge and greater meaning.

Me'ah will be taught by Dr. Lori Hope Lefkowitz, who holds the Ruderman Chair in Jewish Studies at Northeastern University, where she is professor of English and director of the Jewish studies program and Humanities Center.

Memoir Writing

With Rachael Wurtman

One Wednesday a month, 7-9 pm, dates TBD with interest

RSVP to info@conghi.org

This group is an opportunity for single, divorced, and widowed Jewish people ages 40-60. The group will write about and share connections to Israel and Judaism at each meeting, with prompts (music, photos, prayers).

Rosh Hodesh: It's a Girl Thing! (Grades 6-8)

RSVP to Andrea Levinsky at roshhodesh@conghi.org

Enroll by October 15—$180 for 9 sessions

3-5 pm, 10/29, 11/12, 12/17, 1/28, 2/25, 3/25, 4/29, 5/13, 6/10

For teens!

Rosh Hodesh builds self-esteem, Jewish identity, leadership skills, and friendship networks of adolescent girls. RH provides a supportive environment where girls can explore social and cultural issues, and derive their own authentic Jewish values in response to challenges—while having fun.

Modern Hebrew

With Shuli Ben Natan on Tuesdays

Oct. 26, Nov. 2, 9, 16, & 30

Level I 7:00 -8:00 Level II 8:00 - 9:00

Cost / to register: $40 a session for 5 weeks

RSVP to info@conghi.org

Interested in learning to speak Modern Hebrew? This class will be guided by the students' interests and ability, focusing on developing fluency in reading and speaking Hebrew. Level I - Intro to Hebrew. Level II - Learn about current events in Israel through news articles and discussion. Basic Hebrew required. Minimum 4 students required to run the class. $40 per session for 5 weeks. Shuli Ben Natan is a former Hebrew professor at Boston University.

Parenting Through a Jewish Lens

Dates & Times to be determined

RSVP required. To register please email
secretary@mishkantefila.org

Explore core values that can strengthen your family, learning with expert instructors who understand your concerns as a parent, and enjoy rich conversations with other parents on topics that matter.

Shabbat Kiddush Parsha Study

Periodically, TBA in Weekly KI Newsletter

12:45 pm in Epstein. No RSVPs required.

Questions? Email Rabbinic Intern Elizabeth Bonney-Cohen at elizabeth@congki.org

On a monthly basis, Elizabeth will teach a discussion-based text study about the weekly Torah portion. Grab some food at Kiddush after morning services, and then join us to look deeply into one or two aspects of the weekly reading. No background in text learning required—All are welcome.

Siddur Meaning Making

Sundays: October 22 & 29, November 5

10:30-11:15 am in the Library.

Free course, but RSVP is requested. To register, please visit:

<http://tinyurl.com/SiddurMeaning>

How do we understand the prayers of our tradition? How might they be relevant to concerns of today? In this class, we will dive into the language of our liturgy, searching for meaning and spiritual connection to the words of past generations. This course will be offered as a three-part series, beginning at the Learning Summit on October 22nd.

Santa/Menorah: Solving the Hanukkah/ Christmas Dilemma for Interfaith Families

Sunday, December 10

9:30—10:15 am in the Library

RSVP requested. To register please email

secretary@mishkantefila.org

The December Dilemma can be hard for mixed faith families. How does a family celebrate the holidays that were important to the parents as children but that don't match the partner's experiences? What should be taught to and celebrated by the children? Come discuss, share experiences and find resources to guide you through the Hanukkah and Christmas season.

Tea in Tishrei: Community Art

Different days of the week, please see below

With Eliza Katz—RSVP to elizakatz@gmail.com

Artist Eliza Katz is creating a community art project. Join the 'Post-It Project', a community art project which invites our members and other campus partners to reflect upon their experiences at KI during our renovation period. Eliza Katz, will incorporate them into a large, colorful art installation in the Williams Street stairwell, where they can be viewed by all the community members who pass through. The goal for this project is to create a space of reflection and appreciation.

Sunday, 10/1 - 10:30 am; Monday, 10/2 - 7-8:30 pm;

Sunday, 10/8 - in Sukkah - 9-11 am; Monday, 10/9 - in Sukkah - 7-8:30 pm; Sunday, 10/15 - 9-11 am;

Monday, 10/16 - 7-8:30 pm; Thursday, 10/19 - 7-8:30 pm

Traditional (Yiddish/Klezmer) Dance from the Shtetl

Sundays: October 22 and 29, November 5, 12, and 19,
December 2 and 10

10:30—11:15 am in Epstein

With Vladimir Foygelman

Details & registration: Info@centermakor.org

Join choreographer and performer of the Traditional Klezmer Dance, President of Center Makor, Vladimir Foygelman. It is easy. learn how to dance very popular, but forgotten now dances from the Shtetl, (No dance experience needed). Remember your dance shoes!

What are the Minyanim on the 384 Campus all about?

Led by Shirah Rubin, please email info@conghi.org

Sunday, December 10, 10:30—11:15 am

Who prays here? 384 Harvard St. hosts Washington Square Minyan, Minyan Kol Rinah, and Minyan Shaleyem. What are the similarities and differences between these minyanim here and the history of minyanim movement?

Women & Judaism

Sundays: October 22, November 12 & 19

9:30—10:15 am in the Library

Rabbi Talya Weisbard Shalem

RSVP requested. To register, please visit

<http://tinyurl.com/WomenAndJudaism>

When it comes to the women of Tanakh (the Hebrew Bible), we tell many of their stories, invoke them in our prayers, and pass on their names to future generations. But, what about women in rabbinic literature such as the Mishna and Talmud? Who are these women, what roles do they play, what can we learn from them and the stories told about them? In this course, we will examine sources about several famous women in rabbinic literature. All learning backgrounds are welcome. This course will be offered as a three-part series, beginning with the first session at the Learning Summit on October 22nd.

Special Speakers & Events

Adult Learning Summit

Sunday, October 22—9:30 am—12:30 pm in the Library

Do you love learning at the Community Tikkun Leil Shavuot in Brookline and wish we could recreate it at other times during the year? Are you interested in Jewish learning, but aren't sure what's available to you? Have you always wanted to go to a class, but the timing hasn't worked? The Adult Learning Summit will give you a chance to preview new class offerings for the Fall, get a taste of existing classes offered on the campus, and mingle with friends over good learning (and of course some nosh)!

For families!

Taste of Torah: For New Kindergarteners

Sunday, October 1 at 11:00 am

In the Sukkah at the corner of Harvard & Williams St.

Led by Shirah Rubin, Director of Congregational Learning

RSVP to info@conghi.org

Enjoy a taste of the aleph bet and create a craft project.

Food for Thought: Fork Fights & Plate Politics

Sunday, December 3, 9:30—10:15 am

With Rabbi Lior Nevo

To RSVP please email mainoffice@conghi.org.

Food has always played a central role in Jewish life - What can we eat? When do we eat? Why do we eat this? Who decides? The answers to these questions have been part of the power politics and struggles from the Sages to modern day Israel. We will explore texts and different motivations underlying some of the dietary laws in Jewish traditions.

Inspo:Expo—Brookline Action Fair

Sunday, October 29

1:00 - 4:00 pm in Epstein Auditorium

More than ever, actions count. Join Inspo:Expo! “Inspo” means “something or someone that serves as inspiration or motivation.” Brookline people are this very definition, and KI people are known for taking initiative. Interested in doing something to help the world but don’t know where to start? Ready to engage in the New Year to make our community and our world a little better? Come to this Brookline Action Fair to connect with your neighbors who are making a difference. Have a project or an idea to share? Sign up for a table to spread the word! Learn about local social action projects that need your help. Get inspired. Volunteer. Take a stand. For more information and to reserve a table, please email Hadassah Margolis at inspoexpo.brookline@gmail.com.

KI in Israel 2018

“Living in Israel” this summer for 10 days

israelsummer2018@congki.org for details

Kehillath Israel is revolutionizing Israel trips from encountering sights that awaken Jewish belonging to depth experiences that inspire Jewish growth.

Our aim is to grow Jews. We seek the kind of growth that inspires us to elevate to our higher vocation - to generate goodness in the world as committed Jews. Join Rabbi Hamilton and Shirah Rubin based in 'Jerusalem this summer.

KI Religious School Open House

Sunday, October 22

10:30 - 11:30 am

Learn more about the KI Religious School.

Kosher Chicken Soup Cook Off

Sunday, November 12, time to be determined

To RSVP please email secretary@mishkantefila.org

Come and taste our favourite Jewish soup cooked on site by Boston chefs; Enjoy talks on Food and Identity; Taste desserts made by our teen chefs. Visit www.mishkantefila.org for details and up to date times.

Rabbi Tamar Elad-Appelbaum Visits from Israel

Friday December 1, and Saturday December 2

Rabbi Tamar Elad-Appelbaum is the founder of Kehilat Zion; and co-founder of the seminary for Eretz Israeli rabbis of Hamidrasha and the Hartman institute. Her work spans and links tradition and innovation, working toward Jewish spiritual and ethical renaissance. She devotes much of her energy to the renewal of community life in Israel and the struggle for human rights. She will receive the KI Third Commonwealth Prize as a leading change agent advancing Israeli Judaism.

For teens!

For high schoolers:

Sukkot & Shiur: Jews and Immigration

Sunday, October 8, 3:00—5:00 pm; RSVP to info@congki.org
With Jessica Woolf, Teen Coordinator (teens@congki.org)

Join KI's new Teen Coordinator Jessica Woolf for a lively and thoughtful discussion about immigration through a Jewish lens. We will discuss DACA and other immigration-related topics and questions. This event is open to all 9-12 graders. Snacks and beverages provided.

For families!

Open Gym for Pre-K Families

Sunday, November 5

9:00—10:00 am in Epstein Auditorium

Led by Shirah Rubin—RSVP to info@congki.org

Meet families who are exploring various school options for kindergarten. Schmooze, free play, light refreshments.

Rabbi Naomi Levy

Tentative: Morning, Sunday October 29

Rabbi Naomi Levy is the founder and spiritual leader of Nashuva, a groundbreaking Jewish outreach organization based in Los Angeles. She will be giving a book talk in the upcoming year. Please watch the KI eNews for event updates and timing. Need to subscribe? info@congki.org.

Social Justice Pathways

Saturday, October 28 & Sunday, October 29

10:00 – 11:30 am with Rabbi Or Rose

RSVP requested. To register please email
secretary@mishkantefila.org

Study, be inspired by, and reflect on which social justice pathway you want to choose to engage in for the year ahead. This exciting way to engage with others on the campus to actively Tikkun Olam. The session will be free. Contact secretary@mishkantefila.org for more information. In collaboration with Hebrew College.

What's Shaking at KI: Pre-Sukkot Gathering

Sunday, October 1, 10:00 am new member welcome

10:30 am—Community Program; Family Program

In the Sukkah at the Corner of Harvard & Williams St.

RSVP by Tuesday, Sept. 26 to info@congki.org

Join us for a community & new member welcome, along with a light breakfast. Meet KI Committee Liaisons and learn how to get involved at KI in 5778! How can you grow Jewishly with us? Plus, get details on our fall learning opportunities. Invite your friends and meet the community!

Families are invited at 10:30 to decorate the Sukkah in the theme of Ushpizin: Welcoming Guests (A ritual inviting symbolic guests into the Sukkah). Then, create an edible Sukkah together that you can take home!

Offsite Events

Book Club

With Myrna Cohen

Third Thursday of the month, 12:30—2:00 pm

At the Library @ Hampton Place (77 Florence St. in Newton)

This monthly club meets to discuss various books—secular and religious—that are in some way connected to Jewish life. While reading the book is recommended, it isn't required, and all are welcome. With questions or to get information about this month's book, please contact Myrna Cohen at myrna.cohen@comcast.net. No RSVP required.

Jewish Wisdom

With Rabbi Jim Morgan, Mondays, 2:00—3:00 pm

At 1550 Beacon Street in Brookline

Join Rabbi Jim Morgan, a graduate in the founding class of the Rabbinical School of Hebrew College, in in the Community Room of 1550 Beacon St. to explore various Jewish texts, including Pirkei Avot, Torah, and Yiddish stories. Occasionally discussions include contemporary issues regarding religion. All learning levels welcome. No RSVP required. With any questions, please email:

jimmorgan@hsl.harvard.edu

Jewish and LGBTQ Teen Group

Led by Sho Garland of Keshet (www.keshetonline.org)

In this political moment, it's a challenging time to be young and LGBTQ. Through national youth work, Temple Israel has heard from teens how instrumental it is to be able to spend time around other teens who share their Jewish and LGBTQ identities. If you are interested, email Sho Garland at sho@keshetonline.org, send a Facebook message to facebook.com/shogarland, or text 651-233-6220.

LimmudBoston

Sunday, December 3, 9:00 am—5:30 pm

Temple Reyim (1860 Washington Street, Newton, MA 02466)

Early Bird Rate (pre-Rosh Hashanah): $45

Regular admission (after 9/20): $54

Reduced rates available

RSVP required. To register, please visit:

<http://tinyurl.com/Limmud2017>

LimmudBoston is a happening, a Jewish learning fest of culture and identity. From storytelling, music and meditation to Torah and Talmud, LimmudBoston offers inspiration and education – engaging beginners and scholars alike. For more information, visit: <https://limmudboston.org>

Parsha & Other Texts

With Rabbi Jim Morgan

Wednesdays, 2:30—3:30 pm

At 100 Centre Street in Brookline (Behind 384 Harvard St.)

Join Rabbi Jim Morgan at 100 Centre St. to learn about the weekly Torah portion, occasional Yiddish stories, and contemporary religious issues. All learning levels welcome. No RSVP required. With any questions, please email: jimmorgan@hsl.harvard.edu

Ruderman Inclusion Summit

Sunday & Monday, November 19 & 20

The Ruderman Family Foundation is creating a schedule filled with breakout sessions, interesting plenary speakers, time to network and the opportunity to meet in affinity groups. For more information, please see their website:

<http://inclusion2017.org/>

Russian Kabbalat Shabbat & Torah Study

With Rabbi Jim Morgan

Fourth Friday of the Month, 3:30—4:30 pm

At 1550 Beacon Street

Join Rabbi Jim Morgan for an hour of prayer, singing, and learning, all conducted in Russian (we use the Russian translation of Avodah ShebaLev).

No RSVP required. With any questions, please email:
jimmorgan@hsl.harvard.edu

Soul Search

With Rabbi Jim Morgan

Mondays, 3:30—4:30 pm

At 112 Beacon Street in Brookline

Join Rabbi Jim Morgan in the Library of 112 Beacon St. to discuss poetry, short stories, philosophy, and current issues. This is a great class for those interested in a non-religious, spiritual conversation and text study. All learning levels welcome. With questions, email: jimmorgan@hsl.harvard.edu

Congregation
Kehillath Israel
617-277-9155

Congregation
Mishkan Tefila
617-332-7770

KI, CMT, and Partners:

KI—www.congki.org

CMT—www.mishkantefila.org

Yachad—www.yachad.org/newengland

Washington Square Minyan—www.wsminyan.org

Center Makor—www.centermakor.org

Combined Jewish Philanthropies—www.cjp.org

Hebrew College—www.hebrewcollege.edu

Hebrew Play—www.hebrewplay.net

Hebrew Senior Life—www.hebrewseniorlife.org

Keshet—www.keshetonline.org

Minyan Kol Rinah—www.minyankolrinah.com

Minyan Shaleyim—www.minyanshaleyim.org

Ruderman Synagogue Inclusion Project—
www.cjp.org/our-work/caring-social-justice/ruderman-synagogue-inclusion-project

Temple Reyim—www.reyim.org

384 Harvard Street
Brookline, MA 02446