

An Ever-widening Circle

Congregation Kehillath Israel

On Site Safety Guidelines for Large Succah Use

Maximum Capacity: 18 people representing no more than 9 households / pods / bubbles.

Distance: At all times maintain at least 8 feet between yourself and anyone not in your household/pod/bubble.

If waiting outside the succah for a spot, please stand at least 6 feet from the entrance and 6 feet from each other.

Time limits: Please be respectful of others waiting to use this succah. Please spend no more than 15 minutes in the succah if others are waiting. If no one is waiting, you may linger beyond the 15 minutes, but please be prepared to vacate immediately if anyone else spontaneously arrives to use the space.

Hygiene:

- Please sanitize your hands upon entering
- Please sanitize your hands prior to touching/moving chairs
- Please wipe down your chairs before use.
- Cleaning supplies and a trash can are available outside the Succah

Chair use:

- Single chairs have been placed in the six locations permitted to separate households - please DO NOT move these chairs
- Extra chairs are available outside the succah and may be brought in by a household member wishing to join their household
- Chairs outside the succah may also be brought in to use as a temporary table for yourself if needed
- Any chairs added to the single chair should be wiped clean and put back outside the succah after use

Eating and drinking: You may bring your own food. No eating or drinking while standing. All eating and drinking must occur while seated. Please do not share food or drink across pods.

Masks: Masks must be worn at all times except when eating or drinking. Masks must always be put back on prior to standing. Masks must be worn while making kiddush or any other blessings.

Please direct any questions to the main office at the phone number below or email mainoffice@conghi.org.
